Create in Me

Greetings from Lutheridge!

There is no experience or talent necessary to attend this arts retreat. We were all created in God's image, which is to say, we were all created to be creators! This retreat is a collaborative and participatory event. Many artists come to freely share their gifts so that you can learn something new. They, in turn, learn right beside you – from each other and from you!

This is a tentative schedule, as many of the details for this retreat are still being finalized. A very dedicated planning team is working to take all of the talents offered and weave them into a wonderful experience.

There's lots to do in and around Asheville – which is considered the Folk Craft Capital of the USA. If you'd like to come early or stay after the retreat to explore the galleries, studios, and breweries nearby, call or email our registration staff to make those arrangements. Keep up with plans for the retreat by liking the Facebook Page <https://www.facebook.com/CreateInMeCommunity/>. We'll post workshops & other information there as things are decided. Look for another letter with those details about a month before the retreat.

If you have questions about lodging, meals or payment, please direct them to the registration office. If you have questions about program, feel free to be in touch with one of us. We look forward to welcoming you!

God's Peace,
Pastors Drew and Sara

What to Pack ~ The Basics

All bed linens are provided along with one bath towel, hand towel and wash cloth. Please bring your own toiletries, hair dryer and alarm clock. We also recommend rain gear. Casual, comfortable clothing is best, including good walking shoes. The weather in the mountains can be warm or cool, so bring lots of layers. If you'd like to participate in morning movement, or use the fitness room on camp, bring appropriate clothing - and a mat or extra towel for yoga. There are no TVs in our rooms, but most meeting and lodging spaces do have internet access.

Don't worry if you forget something. Drug stores and grocery stores are nearby, and Walmart is across the street. We'll send a more detailed list of things to bring closer to the event. Please let us know if you have questions as you pack.
