Welcome to Theology on Tap Weekend at Lutheridge!

We are delighted that you are attending Theology on Tap Weekend at Lutheridge! We will explore questions of theology and discover ways that discipleship is “brewed” in us through the Holy Spirit. We look forward to having you join us! Our time together will be highlighted by a trip to downtown Beer City, Asheville, on Saturday afternoon-evening for a trip to several local favorite places.

Since there are around 40 breweries just within our county, we definitely won’t get to all of them. We suggest coming early on Friday or staying late on Sunday if you want to visit favorites like Sierra Nevada, New Belgium, or Mills River Brewing. The program begins after dinner on Friday evening.

REGISTRATION CONFIRMATION

Enclosed is a Partial Waiver and Release for you. Please have it filled out, signed, and brought along with you for the weekend.

Your reservation includes lodging on Friday and Saturday nights and three meals: Saturday breakfast and lunch, and Sunday breakfast; and all programming. Your reservation does not include the cost of beers during the brew tour or dinner on Saturday which will happen at a local brewery.

What to Pack ~ The Basics

All bed linens are provided along with one bath towel, hand towel and wash cloth. Please bring your own toiletries, hair dryer and alarm clock. We also recommend rain gear. Casual, comfortable clothing is best, including good walking shoes. The weather in the mountains can be warm or cool, so bring lots of layers. If you'd like to use the fitness room or hike the trails on camp, bring appropriate clothing. There are no TVs in our rooms, but most meeting and lodging spaces do have Wi-Fi access. Camp will provide beer for Friday evening's session, but if you'd like to bring beer to share, you may bring that with you. We will provide coolers and ice.

Don't worry if you forget something. Drug stores and grocery stores are nearby, and Walmart is across the street. Please let us know if you have questions as you pack.
